Just an Even Break
If Bryan Knew It
Playing With Dynamite,
Seven in 56 Minutes

By Arthur

WALL STREET, puzzled, had attacks of nerves yesterday and the day before. Usually high finance expects to elect the Republican nominated. In case of accident, the safest possible Democrat.

Now "The Street" sees one of its biggest men Democratic national chairman. Finance and speculation, most timid things on earth, sent to a sick white rabbit and a soft-shelled crab, fear "a political war in financial circles."

No such fear is justified. Mr. Raskob is a warm friend of Governor Smith, whom he met a year ago, and, like the governor, is a member of the Catholic faith. He means to see to it that the governor "has an even break."

And Mr. Raskob's idea of an even break is no more "50-50."

The Democratic party disbelieves that Wall Street is so terrible wolf after all, just a nice old dog. Imagine William Jennings Bryan if he came back and learning that the Wall Street demon had made a Democratic national chairman of the financial head of a FOUR THOUSAND MILLION-DOLLAR CORPORATION.

Also imagine W. J. Bryan bearing of a Democratic campaign based on a war against prohibition. But you couldn't imagine that, neither could Bryan.

Speculators refused comfort.

however, and many stocks went to new low prices. General Motors, selling in blocks of 30,000 shares was hammered down 11 points to 132 1/2.

Once more let the speculators remember that selling short is dangerous. Selling short a stock like General Motors, that might go to the roof, is playing with dynamite.

Mr. Sloan, president of General Motors, tells advertising men at Detroit that his company expects to sell next year 1,700,000 cars for about two billion dollars. That is what you might call a business.

DESATNICK SWOONS IN DEATH CELL AS FULLER REFUSES TO SAVE HIM

Groaning, and burying his head in his hands, Nathan Desatnick slipped down the bars of the death-house cell door in a faint today at State Prison when news that he must die was broken to him.

Warden Hendry shuffled hurriedly over his keys to open the cell door but even as he was fitting his master key in the lock, Desatnick came out of his swoon, staggered to his feet and slumped down on it with his face buried in his palms.

In this position he was like a child, despite the attempt of Rabbi Moses J. Seder, Jewish chaplain at the prison, to comfort him through the bars.

After a few minutes, the Dorchester priest, desist to die for the alleged drowning of his infant daughter a year ago, composed himself and begged that he be allowed to see his other child, Ruth, four months old.

Yes, surely, he said, said Warden Hendry, "you will have a chance to see your baby before it is over."

Because Rabbi Seder requested that he be present when news of Governor Fuller's refusal to interfere with the death sentence was given to the prisoner, he was present when the news was given to the prisoner.

Follies Girl Bride of Multimillionaire

Petite and blonde Claire, dancer of the Follies, completely fooled her friends. It was learned today, and instead of being a bride, she slipped away with a few friends and was married to Clifford Warren Smith, multimillionaire son of Mrs. Newcombe Carlton, wife of the Western Union Telegraph Co. president.

The engagement was announced a number of weeks ago while the vivacious "Twinkle-Toe" was playing in Boston.

Through her marriage, Claire's tiny lap acquires more money than it can hold, and makes her the richest Follies girl for all time. And there is a prospect of even more wealth to come out of the estate whose penny foundations were laid four years ago by the four Please Turn to Page 2, Column 2.

37 SENTENCED TO JAIL IN NEW BEDFORD STRIKE

New Bedford, July 13.—Thirty-seven textile mill strikers, including 16 girls, were sentenced early today after hundreds of windows were broken in mill buildings. The total arrests in 24 hours in five.

More than 10,000 of the 28,000 out on strike gathered about the plants, and police reserves were dispatched to keep them under control after the window-breaking began.

Strike leaders contend that those who led the window-smashing in the Page, Whitman, Conquist and Noid mills, and who overpowered the handful of police on guard, were not strikers but mischievous youths.

They were arrested two weeks ago when police broke up a parade that the strikers attempted to hold in spite of having been refused a permit.

ICEBREAKER SIGNS LOST RESCUE PARTY TRIO AFTER SAVING 7

Moscow, July 13 (AP).—Hope for the party of six men carried off in the bag of the dirigible Italia on May 25 and since given up for lost has been revived by reports reaching Moscow indicating that the location of the group is known.

(Editor's Note.—The ice-breaker Krasin was reported today on her way to the rescue of the three men who set out on foot to find the Italia crew, making a total of nine men now located.)

Gen. Umberto Nobile, now at Kings Bay, has sent a message to the rescue ship Krasin stating that the group, referred to as the "Alessandria" party, was not far from the present location of the Krasin.

Latest reports received in Moscow indicated that the men were at a point 80.45 north latitude and 80.31 east longitude. This would place them northeast of Foy Island, near which the Viglieri group was rescued.

With these reports, which were not confirmed, came a Please Turn to Page 2, Column 1.

DADDY IS BYRD SKIPPER

WOMAN KILLED BY TRAIN AT CHELSEA

Ignoring the gatekeeper's warning about a woman believed to be Elizabeth Goodell, 35, of Boston st., Chelsea, ducked under the gate at the Arlington st. grade crossing in Chelsea today and tried to get across in front of the Rockport-Boston express, which struck and killed her in full view of many persons on the Chelsea station platform.

Miss Goodell was reported to have left home to go on a short errand and failed to return. Positive identification was difficult because of the nature of the accident. Her body was carried 150 feet by the cowcatcher of the engine. When the train stopped and the body was removed to the side of the road to await the arrival of the medical examiner, several women and girl passengers on the train became hysterical.

The train, running without stop from Lynn to Boston, was racing toward the crossing, and Fred A. Sherman of Chelsea, the crossing tender, had the gates down when he saw the woman start across.

"You can't make it," he shouted, and ran under the gates himself to try to stop her. She tried it, in spite of his cry.

Other cries of warning from the station platform and shrill blasts from the locomotive whistle failed to deter her from her attempt to cross. It was too late for the engineer, M. Willard, to stop.

A crowd gathered about the body where it was removed from the engine and laid by the roadbed near the bridge at crossing, and a police guard was placed over it to await the arrival of Medical Examiner Magrath.

Kinston, July 13—On an urgent call from Mrs. Alice W. Capron, antique dealer, police today arrested Frank Wiley, alias Walter Day of T. Rochester, Ct., who later pleaded guilty to obtaining goods under false pretenses.

Wiley bought $1000 worth of antiques yesterday, according to Mrs. Capron, and gave a check for $150 as initial payment, taking part of his purchases with him. He came back for the rest today, but her suspicions were aroused and she called in State Police Col. Pratus and Deputy Sheriff O'Brien.

The check, which was on the Industrial Trust Company of Providence, proved to be worthless, according to police, and the authorities of Providence said there was no such street address as Wiley gave. Confronted with this evidence, he pleaded guilty and was held in $500 for disposition on July 17.

Connecticut and Rhode Island automobile number plates were found in his possession and he pleaded guilty to driving in this state without a license, but this charge was placed on file.

Royal "Touch" Exposes Fake U. S. Prince

Budapest, Hungary, July 12 (AP)—A self-styled son of the Spanish royal family has been expelled from Hungary.

The man, who gave his name as Prince Louis Bourbon, was said by police to be an American named Gilly.

An attempt to borrow money from the party of his hotel led to the "Prince's" unmasking. Police said he was asked to leave the country a few years ago for lacking a Spanish check.

Last November the American State Department issued the following warning:

"The records show that this man was born in Rumania, entered this country in 1914 under the name of Constantine Gilly, was naturalized in 1916 and his name changed to 'Don Luis de Bourbon'."

6000 DELEGATES STUDY THE PROBLEMS OF YOUTH

Los Angeles, July 12 (AP)—With race and nationality forgotten and time worn barriers levelled during the first two days of the 1928 World's Sunday School Association convention here, more than 6000 delegates representing every corner of the world today tackled problems connected with religious education of the youth of the world.

Endorsement of a campaign to raise $100,000 to be used for Near East relief was voted at a banquet last night. Sunday schools have taken a major part in the raising of more than $100,000,000 for relief in the Bible countries, C. V. Vickrey, president of the International Near East Relief Association, told the delegates.

POWER TRUST SILENCED TWO BIG PARTIES

Washington, July 12 (AP)—The Farmer-Labor party has selected a candidate who "does not choose to run."

Sen. Norris, Republican Nebraska, chosen as the standard bearer of that party, declined the nomination but said his action was not prompted by satisfaction with the two major political parties or their platforms.

He said the power interests were strong enough to cause the major political parties in their platforms to remain silent on the issue, which he termed "the most important question before the American people."

He asserted there were indications of a "gentleman's agreement" between the Democratic and Republican leaders to do nothing in the campaign that would interfere with what he termed "the power trust," and added that "anyone who violates any such silent understanding shall be denounced as a misleader."

He advised the people to "elect as many progressives as possible to the Senate and the House of Representatives, where they can carry on as they have in the past, an uphill and one-sided fight to retain, for the benefit of the people, the natural God-given resources of the country."

MEANS SEEKS PAUPER'S OATH TO ESCAPE FINE

Atlanta, Ga., July 12 (AP)—Gaston B. Means, former department of justice agent, now nearing the end of his 10-year sentence in Federal Penitentiary here, will go before a U. S. commissioner July 13 to take a pauper's oath to relieve himself of a $10,000 fine.

Means was convicted in New York of receiving money from officials of the Greaser System and Glass Cabnet Company of Alabama, Pa., representing to the officials that the money was to be used to bribe U. S. officials. Officials of the company were convicted of using the money to defraud.

Execute Three in Plot

Tirana, Albania, July 12 (AP)—Three men convicted of plotting to assassinate President Ahmed Zogu were executed this morning. Yellow declared they planned to shoot the president from ambush as he drove from Tirana to Korina by automobile. A time bomb was discovered in Ahmed Zogu's villa at Durazzo, which he had intended to visit.

U. S. LOSES 500 MILLION IN FREE GOLD

Chicago, July 12 (AP)—A warning that the nation's credit has been expanded almost to the maximum and that a day of reckoning must come was given by Melvin A. Traylor, president of the First National Bank of Chicago and former president of the American Bankers' Association, speaking to members of the newly-formed Chicago Club Market Association.

"The present situation of tight money," said Traylor, "is not an artificial one—it is fully justified by economic facts. It is continuing along as stock exchange securities as they now are and continue to use the credit they have been using recently."

"This has been increasing at more than half a billion dollars a year for the last two and one-half years, while the federal reserve ratio has been moving down and the borrowing of member banks has been going up."

"In the last year the United States has lost $200,000,000 in free gold," Traylor said, and determined, if possible, not to let the situation get out of hand, as this would involve a crash similar to that in farm lands in 1925.

He said the nation has been mistaking the richness of credit for the richness of capital. The speaker stated, "Instalment selling and bond credit now total more than $2,000,000,000."

Girl Gets Revenge on Fireman by Ringing False Alarms

Worcester, July 12—"Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned." Some such thought is in the minds of firemen today, with an announcement by police that a series of false alarms have been traced to a girl who quarreled with her first sweetheart.

"After" at 2 p. m. today from the box at West and William streets, a fire alarm was sent. A fireman reported seeing a girl dash away from the box, get into an auto, parked a block away and speed off. Then a fireman took off his suspicion and questioning of another led to the uncovering of the facts.

This credit must be paid. A day of reckoning must come.

"There is plenty of credit for business on stock lines, but security credit must be curtailed."

The banker's remarks, coming after he had finished his address, had a profound effect on his hearers. Some of the leaders of the new movement even suggested postponing the opening of the market, on grounds that it was too late to open and bonds. The opening is set for tomorrow.

EX-PREMIER GIOLITTI SLOWLY WASTING AWAY

Rome, Italy, July 12 (AP)—Giovanni Giolitti, former premier of Italy, is slowly wasting away. He is suffering from uric acid poisoning. The great credit man is shrunk and he is able to talk only in whispers.

Rumor Giolitti asked the parish priest to pray for him and his deceased wife. Attending physicians say his death is only a question of a short time.

KIDNAPERS ASK $8000 RANSOM FOR BOY HEIR

Miami, Fla., July 12 (AP)—Kidnapers today were holding for $8000 ransom the three-year-old grandson of Mrs. E. C. McAllister, wealthy Miami hotel owner, while police sought to solve an apparently well-developed plot.

Rilly, the child, was snatched from his bed last night while his mother, Mrs. Max McAllister, was away. The grandmother, answering his cries, rushed into his ground floor bedroom to find the bed vacant.

Early today a telephone call from the McAllister Hotel downtown informed the doting grandmother that the child was unharmed, but it would not be returned until $8000 was paid. The caller went so far as to give a telephone number (or to call about the ransom and a warning not to repeat this message).

Stenrich Henry R. Chase, who previously took up an investigation, learned that a woman lookout stood on the McAllister porch while the kidnapers were procuring a new torso and a stick to facilitate speedy removal of the child through the window. The woman and one or more male companions escaped in an automobile.

Not in Chicago, Oh King!

London, July 12 (AP)—King George inspected a vault in which 100,000 worth of Spanish wine stored. "What great fun it must be to be a bootlegger!" he remarked.

TRIO IN FRONT SEAT DANGER IN DRIVING

By FRANK A. GOODWIN

Highway Safety Editor Boston Evening American. Former Registrar of Motor Vehicles for Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

To three any law in Massachusetts that prevents a person from operating an automobile with three persons in the front seat?

Is there a law which prevents a man driving with one woman sitting beside him? Strange as it may seem, the answer to both these questions is "no."

Men, which questions are frequently asked by persons because the price for seats in cars are continually preventing drivers who have two additional passengers in the front seat.

It is a bad practice, however, in some of the smaller cars, that the operator is crowded to such an extent as to interfere with the proper handling of his machine.

As there is no motor law in Massachusetts forbidding three persons riding in the front seat, it is natural for the police and courts to look around to find a law for use in breaking up the practice.

FOUND SPECIAL SECTION

They found section 13 of the motor vehicle law which reads: "No operator of a motor vehicle shall have a permit to operate in such vehicle or have on or about his person any TRIMMINGS which interfere with the proper operation of the vehicle or of any of the machinery or appliances, by which the vehicle is operated or controlled."

Probably hundreds of operators were convicted and paid fines on this law until a certain lawyer had a lawyer thought with defendant an operator who had been charged with having something near him that was interfering with the operation of his car. He was operating with one arm while the other was around a young woman who was near him.

After the evidence was in the lawyer said, "Your Honor, the offense charged here is that the defendant was operating with TRIMMINGS near him that interfered with the operation. Now there is no evidence that any TRIMMINGS were near him. There was a young woman sitting beside him, but she is not a TRIMMING. She is a fine looking young woman." The judge discharged the defendant.

MORE THAN ONE WAY

Right after that decision someone put a bill in the Legislature to add the word "person" to the law but it was thrown out.

I hope this article will not create an impression in the minds of operators that they can drive with three or four in a front seat or drive with one arm around a cat, and get away with it, because there is more than one way to kill a cat.

"Operating so that the lives and safety of the public might be endangered" is a serious offense and an extremely rare one to be convicted on and it may easily be that in small cases a conviction on this seat might constitute that offense. As for operating with one arm around a girl that certainly is dangerous operating. Every man operating a motor vehicle in these days must of necessity need both his arms to properly do so.

DEATH TOLL IN LEE EPIDEMIC TWENTY NOW

According to the authorities, who issued a warning to everybody not to leave their homes too soon after an attack of the disease.
 The 12th victim was James White, 40, who died at the House of Mr. George L. Drury, who is in charge of the inspection of cafes, beer saloons and roadside refreshment stands.
 Several patients are on the danger list today. Fifty additional names arrived, and the picturesque little town is so filled with stricken persons, ambulances and hearse as to resemble in many respects a hospital center city of the battle lines.

Stole for Funds to Educate Sons, He Tells Court

New York, July 13.—One boy must quit college and his brother high school because dad is in the money, Jack Furusky, who has been arrested 15 times for picking pockets, and convicted 10 times, told the judge on his last appearance that he stole in order to keep one son in college and the other in high school.
 He was sentenced to two years for the same.

ALBANY DRY AGENT IS SHOT IN GUN FIGHT
 Albany, July 13 (AP)—Living in a hotel here, a criminal conviction from a bullet wound in his stomach received today when he figured in a gun fight in Albany's "red light district."
 Five men were captured immediately after the trouble, one of whom was said to have been fired.
 Washburn said he was investigating a card game and found evidence of liquor in it, when a man in the car went into a house and three men came out and opened fire.

 Yokohama, July 13.—We are boarding the Empress of Russia for the voyage eastward across the Pacific and back to the United States, right on our schedule.
 The new record in our group, and only the first of our luck we match it from us.
 We were up today after only four hours sleep, bringing our grand total of sleep to fifteen hours for the six days since we left Cherbourg in our plane, the City of New York.
 Immediately after rising, we left Tokyo for Yokohama, spending by automobile on that Capt. Collier could supervise personally the loading of our plane aboard the Empress of Russia.

press of Russia. Collier and the skipper of the City of New York got aboard the ship, and then we had a whirlwind round of about one hour, while the Empress of Russia was in the water.
 The Empress of Russia was prepared to wait three hours for us if we did not show up.
 I am writing this just as the ship is about to start to get out promptly on schedule.
 The Empress of Russia is a little shaky from our rather terrific experience of riding through the blackness over Japan's soggy rice fields trying to locate an airplane.
 Subsequently, we attended a gala party, at which Collier, guided me high by means of handkerchief tricks and other stunts that brought down the house. Charley had been 12 years in the Orient and is thoroughly familiar with its customs. He made a great hit, and 15 girls personally attended him at dinner.
 Both of us are a bit groggy and in something of a daze. We want sleep, but we are not sleepy at all during the next nine days before we reach the American Pacific coast.

John Henry Mears and Charles R. D. Collier today are steering the Empress of Russia on their attempt to establish a new world record by circling globe in less than 24 days. They will continue to send the story their attempt by radio, exclusively to this newspaper.

 W. Davis. These places in 1924 gave to Coolidge 116 votes to 72 for Davis.
 Benjamin Franklin Smith, 82, a Civil War veteran of 22 years at North Webster, stated that he voted for Smith. He says that public opinion of the fact that it was the first time in his life that he has ever voted for a Democratic nominee in a presidential election, he said.
 In the straw-voting to date, it seems that Hoover has a solid strength in the early part of the day, after the election is decided in favor of Smith, according to the tabulator.

Boston Common gave Smith 613 votes, 352 for Hoover. The voters gave Coolidge 1,124 at this precinct 599 votes to 215 for Davis. Smith swept no less having average in taking votes away from the Coolidge four years ago. At the Common, he showed 140, and at State St. 10, for a total of 150.
 Hoover collected a total of 29 votes from Davis at both places. At State St. gave Smith 215 votes to 10 for Davis.

3 ACCUSED OF GIVING DOPE
TO 100

Three men, named as the source of supply for 100 drug addicts on Boston Common, were held in jail last night following arraignment before U. S. Commissioner E. C. Jensen.

Bruno Kavalski and Joseph Connelley, both of the North End, furnished bail of $1000, and James M. O'Brien of Cambridge was released in $1000.

The men were arrested by John McAvoy, George Doyle and William McDonald, narcotic agents, after O'Brien was trailed from the Common to a North End playground, according to the charges.

There, the charges state, Kavalski was the last link in the "chain system," with Connelley the go-between. The "reuter" sold for $1000 a ounce, the agents said.

A home is man's greatest asset. Do you own yours? If not, now is the time to buy. The first of several of these homes listed in the Boston Evening American.

GERRY TO LEAD
STATE SURVEYS
FOR SMITH

New York, July 13 (AP)—A state by state canvass to determine the political lay of the land is to be made before the Democratic presidential campaign gets into full swing.

Conditions locally are to be stated by members of the Democratic National Committee who were on their way home today after a series of conferences here which brought about a national campaign organization with John J. Raskob, financial chairman of General Motors, as its head.

The commitment, keyed up by words of encouragement from Gerry Smith, the standard bearer, are to report as soon as feasible to Senator "Burrhead" Smith, chairman of the campaign advisory committee. Until they have done so, the full scope of the Democratic national campaign will not be determined.

Governor Smith arranged today to return before night to Albany. The date for his official notification at the capital has not been fixed.

Raskob is at his summer home in Maryland, shooting aside until next week the problems of the campaign. Herbert Lehman, New York investment banker who will handle campaign finances, decided to take a break off to visit a son in a military camp.

G. M. Smith told the party workers he was ready to press his campaign to the limit, but doubted the wisdom of undertaking too many speeches once he starts out on a stump tour around Labor Day. It is said he intended to hold himself in 10 addresses, all to be broadcast by radio, at strategic points, but his political address will be undoubtedly more eloquent than that.

Mrs. Frank Mann, former national committeewoman for West Virginia, announced she would not support Smith because of his stand on prohibition.

Josephus Daniels, through his newspaper at Raleigh, N. C., praised the new national committee chairman, Raskob, but denied his right to stress issues "not settled in the platform of the party."

Love Barred as Bolter From Texas Ballots

Dallas, Tex., July 13 (AP)—The names of Texas Democratic candidates for state offices who have refused to vote for the election of Governor Smith today were barred from primary ballots in three counties pending a test case. The third reversal for bolters came when Dallas County executive committee refused to place the name of Thomas B. Love and other anti-Smith Democrats on the ballots for the primary July 23. Love, former Democratic national committeeman and leader of the ultra dry faction, is a candidate for lieutenant governor.

5 SEIZED AS SUSPECTS IN N. Y. GANG SLAYING

New York, July 13 (AP)—Five young men, arrested at a hotel early today, were held for questioning in connection with the recent murder of Frankie Yale, Brooklyn underworld king. Yale was slain at the wheel of his car by five men in a swift-moving action. The men said they were Mos. L. S. 27, wanted in connection with two holdups, Sam Cohen, 23, Sam Klein, 24, George Allen and Harry Klein, all of New York.

Spain Bans Mixed Bathing

Barcelona, July 13 (AP)—Mixed sun baths for men and women in bathing suits are forbidden by the provincial governor; also want bathing suits.

STOCKINGLESS TENNIS LATEST NEWPORT FAD—BETTY ALDEN

Girls of Smart Rhode Island
Spa's Summer Colony Blaze
New Fashion Trail; "Peter Ibbetson" Playing to Brilliant Casino Theater Audiences

YOUTHFUL FEMININE NEWPORT sets the seal of its high approval on a new fad. This summer, as it covets about the Casino tennis courts, it is stock-ingleless. Appallingly lacking from the earlier limbs of Newport's very smartest misses is the sheen of silk or the fleecy caress of the softest wool, hitherto considered a consequential part of feminine adornment. As young Miss Newport volleys and lobs in the daily tennis round from her slender ankle to her dimpled knee nothing of covering meets the eye save a most becoming coat of golden tan.

AND IN THE SMART SHOPS THAT flank the Casino where Bellevue avenue's daily social pageant is most lively, a vast consternation reigns. "What next!" choros the shopkeepers with one voice. Will chapeaux no longer be worn, and will gloves and other folderols follow the stocking into the discard of feminine wearables? Whatever the answer may be, one has to admit that the stockingleless fad, with such fair and charming exponent as Miss Hoye Livermore and Miss Lily Cushing, is going over tremendously.

BRIGHT PARTICULAR STARS IN Newport's glittering younger set, these two, and some day destined to be leaders in the swankiest circle Newport boasts, when in the future social authority is passed from dwager to daughter. Whatever has their approval may well be considered the fad of the moment. More than a fad, in fact, a fashion. And well may the shopkeepers wait to high heaven, because where they lead others follow. Both girls are unusually attractive. Both are tall and both possess a sapling slenderness immensely decorative on the tennis courts.

BOSTON KNOWS BOTH GIRLS, AND especially Miss Cushing, who is kin to Cushings, Forbeses and Pearlings among the Hub's ultra ones. Her father was the late Howard Cushing, well known artist, and her uncle is the Greatton Dulany Cushing, bachelor owner of a Beacon Hill establishment and a Newport villa. Her mother, born a Cochrane, is one of Newport's handsomest, and is now Mrs. James Denison Sawyer of New York and "The Ledges" in Newport.

SPEAKING OF FASHIONS, NEWPORT HAS BECOME a bit blasé, from having seen so many bizarre and fanciful ideas launched there. But it really was electrified, when Mrs. James Clevs appeared at Bailey's Beach recently. Her gown was a heavy, dark silk almost covered by a design in white. Fan garlands, enormous roses, triphal arches and stately eddies swirled out heavily, white against dark blue. Mrs. Clevs is a handsome young matron, just the brilliant-eyed, avante sort to carry off remarkably well a gown so unusual in pattern and mode.

I SAW THAT PRETTY YOUNG BOSTON MATRON, Mrs. Daniel de Menocal, at Bailey's Beach. She was doing the maternal, as she does so prettily, tooling her young flock out to the beach for their daily dip on the select strand. The De Menocals have a villa in Miantonomi ave. this summer, I believe. It is the same establishment they occupied last season. The De Menocal girls are attractive youngsters, destined to be as charming and popular as their petite and vivacious mater.

LAST SEASON TUESDAY EVENING WAS "THE" evening at the Casino Theater Festival. This summer every evening has the caelest of society's approval. Mrs. Frederic Cameron Church, Jr., chooses Saturday evening in which to be a box hostess and entertain guests. And Mrs. James Van Alan of Wakehurst also desires to give her high approval to that evening. Mrs. Paul Pitt Simons, mother of William H. Vanderbilt, the Casino Theater's youthful president, is in Newport now and waxes most enthusiastic over her son's latest interest.

A STRIKING MATRON IS THE FORMER MISS ELLEN FRENCH, whose heart and hand were won by the late Alfred Vanderbilt, and whose patrician beauty was a byword among past generation beaux. This season her Vanderbilt son is following a family tradition and becoming an important host, as well as being theater president. Mr. Vanderbilt entertained again last evening in his box, and yesterday had a party out for a short cruise in his motor cruiser Widgee. Naturally as a chief sponsor for the theatrical season, William Vanderbilt is delighted with its growing success.

THE NEWPORT MILLIONAIRE SET TURNS OUT gladly arrayed for the performances. "Peter Ibbetson" is playing to brilliant audiences, composed of such Newport personages as the Henry Clevs, the Anthony J. Drexel Biddle, the Goadly Loews, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sargent Cram, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dr. Whitehouse, Mrs. J. Nicholas Brown, General and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mrs. Arthur Curtis James and others equally exalted. The Cornelius Vanderbilts entertained last evening.

was to kill seven men—three black, four white. The three negroes were to die after the white men, perhaps because politeness requires that the whites pass ahead of the others.

Eight minutes is allotted for each killing, just time enough to get a man into the room, tie him down, fiddle and remove him. Eight minutes, and what kind of severity after it? The men would like to know that.

Will there be separate compartments and rules for the black men and white where they are going?

Noguchi, admirable Japanese scientist, killed by yellow fever while studying that disease in Africa, leaves everything to his wife. Twelve thousand dollars is the total fortune of the dead man. He did not work for money, but for a name. And his name is honored everywhere on earth. He succeeded.

What follows interests drug-gists and all that brush teeth or take baths, and especially those interested in that school-girl complexion.

There is to be a merger of Colgate & Co. with Palmolive Toilet Co. These concerns do a business of $100,000,000 a year, which proves that we are as clean as we are rich.

This nation still has money to lend. In six months Europe has borrowed one billion, fifty-three millions from us, and there is plenty more where that came from.

The United States has an income of one hundred million a year, ten billion more than it costs us to live. So we lend.

Some day we shall wish we had invented our billions nearer home.

One cheerful feature in our national business is our trade of almost two thousand million dollars with Latin America.

Before the war our South American trade was only $200,000,000. And we have more than a billion invested in South America, against $100,000,000 in 1914.

Italy in memory of her victory over Austria unveils a monument which originally bore this inscription: "From this point we have driven the barbarian language, laws and arts."

Mussolini has changed "barbarian" to "foreign," but still Austria is offended.

For three thousand years "barbarian" has been a word of deep insult along the Mediterranean. Everybody outside of Greece was a barbarian to the Greeks, of whom none could legally marry an outside woman. That caused all of Jason's trouble, after he brought back his high-strung barbarian wife, who had helped him get what he wanted. For a day that would make even Mussolini shudder, see Euripides.

Westboro Cannon Ball Dropped by Knox's Wagon Train

Westboro, July 13 (AP)—A 35-

pound cannon ball, found on Lyman Hill after the heavy rain of July 4, is undoubtedly a ball dropped from the artillery wagon

trains brought from Fort Thomedra to Boston by Gen. Henry

Knox, chief of artillery under

Washington, master Dr. Charles

H. Reed of Westboro Historical Society.

The ball was found by Donald

Martinez in the rear of Gibbs' cottage at the Lyman school for boys and apparently had long been buried under two or three feet of earth that was washed away by the rain. It is five inches in diameter and is part lead.

The artillery train passed through Westboro and across what is now known as the Lyman school grounds.

This is why GOODYEAR TIRES are built with SUPERTWIST

And It's Why We Offer You Goodyear as the Best

When the carcass or body of a tire begins to sag and wilt under the terrific strain of hard going, right then and there trouble begins, soon followed by total collapse, a dead tire and dead mileage.

The sinews and muscles of a tire should be as good as its tread. That's why Goodyear Tires are built with SUPERTWIST, that vibrant cord that stretches farther than other cords, and comes right back into place again, ready for any further road-surprise ahead.

And when you consider that at a nominal speed of forty miles, the sidewalls of a tire "flex" twenty-five thousand times an hour, you can readily understand what this extra resiliency means in Goodyear—more comfort, more miles, no distortion, and money saved to you.

"Tired" tires can't give you that. A "tired" tire is as good as dead. May look O. K. outside—but its soul is gone—and plenty of paid-for mileage into the bargain.

Any one of us can show you what SUPERTWIST means to you. Choose the most convenient address and drop in. See this simple, but very interesting test. It takes only a few moments, but will teach you more about tires than you've ever known before.

Tunney and Heeney
Ratze No Furor
Richard in Bad Spot
By NICK FLATLEY

FACT, HEAVY TITLE FIGHT IN TWO WEEKS

TWO weeks from today you will be reading the stories of Gene Tunney's defense of his heavyweight title against the boy from down under, Tom Heeney. Fourteen days hence Gene will probably have one more win on his record, while Thomas will be banking more money than an Australian fighter ever thought there could be.

But you would never realize, from the public prints or the chatter where the ring birds gather, that any kind of a title fight was in the offing. Nobody knows much about it, and what's more to the point, nobody seems to care.

There has been no hallyho worthy of the name, at all. It has not been rumored that Gene was too much wrapped up in literature to do his daily exercises. It has not been hinted that Thomas has been led from the strict training path by the sugary offers of New York gamblers, who seduced him with the N.Y. brand of art and art.

The respective training stints of Messrs. Tunney and Heeney have stirred up as much interest as the daily doses that your neighbor, John J. Whoozie, goes through while his coffee is percolating, before the a. m. train.

The fighting universe failed to go for this quarrel. It takes some kind of a real prospect to get $40 from the widest sport fan. The boys who will give that for a football ticket, or a World Series pastebored, are very cold as regards this fight. They can't see the scrap part.

Heeney, in four quarters in these parts, showed no ability whatever as a fighter. Thomas can take it, and that's about all. There is some hope that he may assimilate all that Tunney can give, and then go on to win over the long 10-round distance. That's a very slim hope.

Tunney has boxed but twice in two years. But he keeps in shape always. He's a wonderful physical specimen. He may have lost the zest for battle and the judgment of distance, and everything else. But he has enough pride and natural ability to make him a ten to one shot over the Australian.

Every fight fan knows this. Tex Rickard must, too. But he had to put Heeney in there, because Tunney demanded. Chances are now that Gene wished he had picked Sharkey, or some other dangerous contender.

You will hear much about the million that Gene has been guaranteed. But you can bet what you will that the champion is in on percentage. And Heeney is sure of a fat check, anyhow. It will be interesting to see how Rickard tries to make this apparent blunder over in the next ten days. If Tex can do it, he will be elected permanent emperor of the ring.

GENE HAS PLANNED A WALKING TOUR PROBABLY HE HAD THE COLLENT VARIOUS TO RIDE, AFTER THIS ONE.

Heeney proved that he was not very much of a fighter. But the record of his career is not very good. L. N. American progress has reached a high stage.

POOR BRIVES PROVE RECORD BASEBALL MYSTERY

"What" the cry echoes louder and louder the matter with the baseball game is perplexed. He cannot figure how a team like the New Yorks has been able to win so often. Neither can players, man after man, or another else. The Braves, in their worst days, won a ball game out of every three. It usually did a bit better.

Now, an average club, that played in every five days, won a National League race, by getting behind around like an old football. A good club team could do better in the league than the Braves have done in the past few months. The club is one of the mysteries of baseball. The owners, who enabled everything on what looked like a sure shot, are fearful short on a thing, baseball matter.

Had we had, had luck and had baseball be combined to make our Braves an impossible combination. It is a miracle to be performed shortly, there will be some kind of a chance, from some to note, at the Wagon.

GEORGE WRIGHTMAN IS IN LINE FOR A FAVORABLE VOTE AS THE HIGHEST OLYMPIC SWIMMERMAN IN HISTORY. THE GAMES ARE A MAN WITH THE COURAGE OF HIS CONVICTIONS.

NORTON'S MATCH FROM BUFFINGTON

Manchester, Mass., July 13—Joe Norton, Jr., advanced into the semi-final round state amateur golf championship tourney at the Essex C. C. today by defeating Art Buffington of Fall River, 1 up, in an 18-hole match.

Norton, medalist in the tourney, will play a 36-hole round in the semi-finals this afternoon and if he wins, will be forced to travel over the same distance in the finals tomorrow.

Norton, Jr. and A. T. Buffington had the first three holes level, but Norton came through with a three on the short 17th to break the tie. Buffington stepped into a trap on the 18th, where he took the long 5th and took the hole and won the match with a "birdie" four.

Three birdies along on nine holes until the 8th, where Norton was lapped with his second and Buffington with his third.

Olympic Athletes in High Seas Workout

By DINK TEMPLETON

On Board the U. S. President Roosevelt, July 13 (by radio)—Everything is well with the 288 members of the American Olympic team.

These athletes, who seek the supremacy of the world in the games to be held at Amsterdam, have encountered practically no sea-sickness and if the fine weather keeps up, the boys and the girls, too, should be in excellent condition when we reach the other side.

Already the runners and weight-throwers are in action. You would think it was a six-day hike race the way the sprinters and long-distance runners keep moving about continually around the deck. Except, of course, they have no bicycles.

Many of the boys are still arguing because Great Britain was left out of the team although he placed fourth in the 1000 m. race at Boston. Heeney, Mead, above, American diving champion, and Johnny Weissmuller, sprint swimmer, are on board the U. S. President Roosevelt as members of the Olympic swimming team. Romance Won't Mix Well With Water Toronto, Ont., July 13 (AP)—Romance and training for a Marathon swim do not mix, George Young found. So he is going to abandon his idea of training rigorously for the September marathon.

After a conference attended by the Walker, Young and the object of the swimmer's affection, Young agreed to abandon his training after September 1.

He said he would give his fiancée aid to the swimmer only if Young made public announcements through the newspapers of his intention of training rigorously for the September marathon.

NORTON'S MATCH FROM BUFFINGTON

Manchester, Mass., July 13—Joe Norton, Jr., advanced into the semi-final round state amateur golf championship tourney at the Essex C. C. today by defeating Art Buffington of Fall River, 1 up, in an 18-hole match.

Norton, medalist in the tourney, will play a 36-hole round in the semi-finals this afternoon and if he wins, will be forced to travel over the same distance in the finals tomorrow.

Norton, Jr. and A. T. Buffington had the first three holes level, but Norton came through with a three on the short 17th to break the tie. Buffington stepped into a trap on the 18th, where he took the long 5th and took the hole and won the match with a "birdie" four.

Three birdies along on nine holes until the 8th, where Norton was lapped with his second and Buffington with his third.

THE BOSTON AMERICAN'S PLATFORM FOR BOSTON AND NEW ENGLAND

For BOSTON: 1—Clean streets.
2—Better pay for honest public service.
3—An airport SECOND TO NONE.
4—Erection of a MUNICIPAL AUDITORIUM to compare with any in the land, in order that Boston, properly supplied with first-class hotels, may be the premier convention city of the U. S. A.

For NEW ENGLAND: 1—Weld the six States into a unit through the activities of the New England Council, thus creating a community consciousness.
2—Promote intercourse with Central and South America, encouraging New Englanders to "turn to the sea" again.

3—Keeping everlastingly at the job of telling the rest of the country all about our unique advantages as Summer and Winter Playground of the Nation.
4—Foster the prosperity of our industries through (1) greater efficiency in production and (2) the use of modern methods in merchandising.
5—Promote in every way such natural resources as forests, water powers and fisheries.
6—Assist New England agriculture to better marketing methods.

And on Sunday?

Golf, as a Matter of Course

At the invitation of Yale, the mid-summer meeting of the New England Federation of Harvard Clubs is being held at New Haven, beginning today.

Graduates of Harvard living in New England number more than 19,000, whose representatives will be the guests of the ancient for until sometime on Sunday. Rooms have been assigned to them in Bingham and Vanderbilt halls, a conference tomorrow will be held in Sprague, baseball nine made up of Yale and Harvard graduates will meet on the diamond and a time has been set apart for the inspection of Yale's buildings.

The program, for Friday and Saturday at least, goes into great detail, after the something-does-every-minute plan. But Sunday is to be different, although not in the way the Founders have liked. This is what the program provides for Sunday:

SUNDAY

Breakfast at the Hotel Taft (table d'hôte), after which the conference will disband.

The Yale Golf Club is open, free of cost, to those who wish to play the course at any time during the three days. Any of the other courses in New Haven or nearby may be played by payment of the usual greens fees.

It may be that the committee decided that to list the churches of the City of Elms would take too much room, or inquiry may have developed the fact that they are "closed for the Summer." Away from home influences and the home pulpit, however, we may take it for granted that many if not most of these Harvard men head for church as a matter of habit.

But what a rumpus would have been made up and down New England 50 years ago over the omission from a Harvard men's Sabbath program, of any mention of "divine service."

Don't Be an Imbecile

The Grass and Forest Fire Season Is Due Mainly to Human Carelessness

A few days of warm weather and the grass and forest fire season gets under way—and that's due mainly to human carelessness.

At least some of our New England forest fires each year are started directly by tobacco ashes and cigarette stubs thrown heedlessly out of automobiles.

What would you think of a man who came into your city home and threw lighted matches and glowing cigarette stubs on a floor sprinkled with gasoline or shavings? You would say that he was an imbecile criminal. In the Summer time the great floor of our forests is as inflammable as if it were covered with shavings.

Remember that when you go out into the country. Don't be an imbecile with fire. In the forests, and even in the neighborhood of city vacant lots, remember the Summer fire hazard.

Dangerous Tinkering

High Wages Come First

The Swiss Journal de Geneve thinks Hoover will be elected because American voters would fear Governor Smith's interference with the tariff.

The Swiss Journal says, "The man who dares to tinker with protectionism will take on himself terrible responsibilities and launch the country in a dangerous adventure."

Governor Smith has lived all his life in a city surrounded by men that earn wages, and knows as well as the editor of the Journal de Geneve that you can't pay high wages if workers compete on even terms with foreigners getting low wages. Nobody will be allowed to make this a free trade country, or half free trade either.

Midsummer's Day Dream

IT WAS SO UNCOMFORTABLE IN BOSTON YESTERDAY THAT OTTO CROW STOLE OFF TO THE HILLS TO LIE UNDER A BIG TREE.

DURING THE AFTER NOON OTTO LAY DOWN IN THE ARMS OF MATHREUS, AS THEY SAY, AND AS HE SLEPT, CAME A DREAM.

(WITH ALL THE UNHAPPINESS ABOUT GREY FIRE, MR. CROW SHOULD BE MORE CAREFUL ABOUT GOING TO SLEEP WITH A LIGHTED CIGAR IN HIS MOUTH, JOKES.)

OTTO DREAMED HE WAS ROBERTINUS CLEVER WICKED ALONE ON A DESERT ISLAND, FAR FROM SMOKE OR SMOKELESS BAKING DOGS OR LAWN MOWERS. (SAME ISLAND THE CONVENTION WAS HELD LAST YEAR, AND ONE WITH MORE TREES, ETC.)

IT WAS TERRIBLE, OTTO, EVEN MY LIPSTICK BECAME OVERHEATED.

AFTER DISCOVERING OTTO HE FINDS HIS TREASONOUS SURPRISE, OTTO PIPERINO, WHO HAS BEEN ALSO MENTIONED UPON THE ISLAND. (JUST A BEACH, ETC.)

SLOW-MINDED HAVE DONE WONDERS

By DR. FRANK CRANE

If you feel that you have a "slow" mind, don't worry about it. Pretty good company exists in that class.

Pierre Curie, the famous discoverer of radium, which is one of the great achievements of the generation in which he lived, used to say to his wife and co-worker, Marie, that he always felt that he possessed a "slow" mind.

Charles P. Steinmetz, the electrician, who was called a "wizard" because of his genius in mathematical work, said he hated the multiplication table when he was a boy in school because it took him such an extraordinary length of time to master it.

It is a familiar tale that Edison's teacher wondered if he were really bright, and that Grant's mother almost concurred in the acceptance of the popular nickname for her son of "Uncle Grant."

Thackeray, the English novelist, once said that he often felt that he "had no head above the ears."

"And Moses said to the Lord . . . 'I am slow of speech and of a slow tongue.'"

Yet all of these men achieved superlative things. There are other qualities in character more valuable than nimbleness of wit and the faculty for making immediate decisions.

The mental hares hop about conscious of their sprinting superiority.

Over a short course they have things their own way. But the course of Life is a long one.

An immediate viewpoint gives all advantage to the nimble mind, a long time bird-eye view reveals the power for perseverance which lies in minds which are thought to be "slow."

"Thou sayest," wrote Marcus Aurelius in his "Meditations," "Men cannot admire the sharpness of thy wit . . . Be it so. Show these qualities then, which are altogether in thy power—sincerity, gravity, benevolence, frankness, endurance in labor."

The main thing is to acquire the habit of thinking things through.

Do not be satisfied with what someone else has said. See a thing clearly in your own mind.

A man who accustoms himself to relying upon his own mental processes has accomplished a great deal.

He has the kind of independence that men need, independence of intellect.

LISTEN, WORLD!

By ELISIE ROBINSON

AND when he had sent the multitude away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray; and when the evening was come, he was alone there. And the ship which His disciples were now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves, for the wind was contrary. And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea. And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, 'It is a specter,' and they cried out for fear. But straightway Jesus came unto them, saying, 'Be of good cheer, it is I; be not afraid.'

There is the secret of a strong and gentle life—to pass serenely over troubled tides.

Tides of grief and rebellion—currents of greed and hate—rising love-gales of terror and anger have done it. Lincoln did it. Joan of Arc did it. Scarcely a man has done it. Lincoln did it. Joan of Arc did it. Scarcely a man has done it. Lincoln did it. Joan of Arc did it. Scarcely a man has done it.
